GTSpec WRX STI GEN II Exhaust Header Manifold

Model : GTS GTS-PER-1016

Manufacturer : GT Spec

The GTSpec GEN II exhaust manifold is the revision of the original. The revolutionary velocity chamber design and the high quality finish are unchanged on the new generation as we strive to bring the best value to our customers. The flanges are completely redesigned: the finish is upgraded to stainless steel; and it sports a three pattern to help prevent leaking between the up-pipe and the header. The EGT bung is revised as well.

Detachable up-pipe is included. The up-pipe comes with a velocity chamber inside the pipe. This special feature is structure for increasing airflow velocity. This full stainless steel header and uppipe is covered under GT-SPEC's 2 years warranty.

The complete package includes header, up-pipe, block gasket x2, and upipe gasket x1.

New Gaskets recommended for purchase with this header.
